Call for Volunteers / Voluntary Trainees in Residence at the Global China Academy (GCA)

Join us in fostering a deeper understanding between China and the global society through the social sciences and humanities. At the Global China Academy (GCA), we value social creativity, transcultural engagement, comparative perspective, and transdisciplinary approaches. Our work spans academic research and public engagement, supported by our Fellows, publishing arm, Global Century Press (GCP), and further advanced through our annual Global China Dialogues (GCDs).

We're Looking for:

- Editors & Translators
- Web & Graphic Designers
- Legal Advisors & Other Professionals
- Event Coordinators & Social Media Experts
- Administrators, Fundraisers, & Marketing Specialists
- Interns

Get Involved:

Your contribution will vary with GCA's needs and projects. From translating publications to promoting events, there's a role for everyone interested in enhancing China-global understanding.

Benefits:

- Develop valuable skills and gain unique experiences
- Receive recognition for your contributions in GCA publications
- Enhance your CV and build professional connections
- Access to advice and fast-track publication opportunities
- Provide a reference from GCA

Residency:

GCA offers free accommodation in London in exchange for volunteer work—ideal for interns and trainees. All roles begin with a one-month trial period.
